

My Rotating Side Table

Uses the bearing and couplings from an old front loading washing machine.

There are two fixtures one which connects to the drum and the other which connects to the frame.

One with 4 prongs is ideal for fixing the caster wheels and the other with three prongs supports the circular glass tabletop.

The bearing rod when extended forms the central support.